

Continuing Oberlin Heritage Center's Tradition of Excellence

2011 was a year of much action and accomplishment by the Board, staff, and volunteers in accordance with the directions and goals of the Oberlin Heritage Center's new five-year strategic plan. The Oberlin Heritage Center offered a lively and dynamic array of activities throughout the year and welcomed 10,645 visitors for tours, history walks, and programs throughout the area.

The publication of the Oberlin History comic book, Oberlin: Origins and Onward! caused a lot of "buzz" among fans of all ages. Colorful, creative, educational and entertaining, the book features many proud moments in Oberlin history from its founding in 1833 up to the present.

The Oberlin Heritage Center was one of six organizations honored by the Ohio Association of Nonprofit Organizations (OANO) in a ceremony at the Ohio Statehouse on May 5, 2011 for achieving its Standards for Excellence, an ethics and accountability code for the non-profit sector. As part of the preparation to apply to achieve the Standards for Excellence, the Board attended a workshop about the Standards for Excellence and subsequently worked with Pat Murphy and Pat Holsworth to review and refine all governing policies and procedures. The "two Pats" then assembled and submitted a massive notebook of documents. Outside peer reviewers then examined all aspects of the Heritage Center's program operations, governance, human resources, financial management, and fundraising practices. Achieving the OANO Standards for Excellence in addition to having been accredited by the American Association of Museums (in 2005) demonstrates that the Heritage Center adheres to national standards, is well managed and responsibly governed, and fulfills its obligations to those who benefit from its programs, to contributors and to the public. The Oberlin Heritage Center received additional statewide recognition at the Ohio Local History Alliance annual conference in October in Worthington where it received a History Outreach Award for its Summer Camp Programs which were cited as an important model for other history organizations to emulate. Trustees Roberta Garcia and Donna Shurr, Honorary Trustee Jean Foggo Simon, Museum Education and Tour Coordinator Elizabeth ("Liz") Schultz, Executive Director Pat Murphy, and AmeriCorps Member Richard Donegan attended the awards luncheon along with representatives of history organizations from throughout the State.

THE MISSION OF THE OBERLIN HERITAGE CENTER IS TO PRESERVE AND SHARE OBERLIN'S UNIQUE HERITAGE AND TO MAKE OUR COMMUNITY A BETTER PLACE TO LIVE, LEARN, WORK AND VISIT.

The Heritage Center also received a regional award from the Cleveland Restoration Society in July and a statewide award from the State Historic Preservation Office in November for its instrumental role in helping to preserve and transform the exterior of the People's Banking Company Building on South Main Street to become the new Oberlin branch of LorMet Community Credit Union. The project architect, Mark Lesner, worked closely with LorMet CEO Dan Cwalina and Heritage Center Executive Director Pat Murphy to return the facade of the building to its original mid-twentieth century Modern appearance as shown in a 1959 photograph from the Heritage Center's collection. The interior, too, is resplendent with 1950s and 1960s themed detailing, including a turquoise glazed brick safe that was uncovered during the renovation.

Staff and volunteers expanded the Heritage Center's outreach efforts to help serve new audiences in accordance with recommendations made by community members and by an outside Museum Education consultant as part of an American Association of Museums Museum Assessment Program ("MAP") Community Engagement Assessment that was completed in 2010. For example, the Heritage Center began offering free tours year-round for college students and introduced the new Soldiers and Civilians History Walk that showcases the community's unique roles in the Civil War, both on the battlefield and the home front.

The Heritage Center launched a new hands-on-history enrichment program in conjunction with the City of Oberlin Recreation Department's summer playground program at Prospect School. Children aged six to nine enjoyed taking part in projects that combined fun and learning about architecture, historic transportation, clothing, and food. Liz Schultz reported that the participants found that the lemonade they made by hand was either deliciously refreshing or a total failure, depending on how much sugar they added! Refining and evaluating audience statistics also helped the staff and docents better define and serve target audiences.

Many behind the scenes projects also were accomplished, with assistance from volunteers, student interns, AmeriCorps members, and the Heritage Center's committees. One committee that was particularly active in 2011 was the Collections Advisory Committee. Collections Assistant Prue Richards, Pat Murphy, and committee members undertook and accomplished the complete review and revision of the Heritage Center's Collections

Management Policy. Many individuals generously donated archival documents, historic photographs, publications, and artifacts that can be used to help tell the history of Oberlin from the abolitionists and the Underground Railroad era on through the F.A.A. Air Traffic Control Center and the late 20th century. Researchers from near and far made extensive use of the Center's Resource Center library to explore many aspects of the history of the area. The Heritage Center also hosted the "Building a Meaningful Collection Workshop" for representatives of local historical organizations as part of a series of events offered by the Local History Office of the Ohio Historical Society in association with the American Association for State and Local History's Standards and Excellence Program for Historical Organizations.

Assistant to the Director Mary Anne Cunningham and the Membership Committee kept busy throughout the year, as they do every year, to recruit, welcome, and retain members. The Heritage Center now has about 750 memberships, including approximately 100 businesses and organizations. Members hail from near and far with about 500 of them from Oberlin, 90 from elsewhere in Lorain County, 70 from other parts of Ohio, and 85 from outside Ohio (including 35 states and 1 foreign country). Each and every member is greatly appreciated and is vital to our continued success.

The Oral History Committee undertook considerable research in preparation for doing a series of interviews on the Vietnam era in Oberlin. Committee members also did interviews with Hank Annable, Connie Ponder, and Dick Williams. All told, Heritage Center volunteers logged 4,517 hours of service during the year and others contributed additional hours not documented on time sheets.

The Heritage Center has been fortunate to host a talented full-time AmeriCorps member for two years as part of the Ohio History Service Corps/AmeriCorps Program and the Civil War 150 initiative. For the first year of the program Karyn Norwood held this one-year position. A recent graduate of Saint Michael's College in Vermont, Karyn did extensive research on Oberlin and the Civil War and helped to create the new Soldiers and Civilians History Walk. Her successor, Richard Donegan arrived in October from New Jersey where he had previously worked at the New Jersey State Archives and the Cape May County Historical Museum and Genealogical Society. Both AmeriCorps members helped immeasurably in staffing the Heritage Center, assisting with youth camps and children's programs, and undertaking special research projects. They also worked to foster regional collaborations with area historical organizations, visitors' bureaus, libraries, and other tourism partners. Each also assisted the Oberlin College Archives with digitization of its Civil War collection.

Staff and volunteers frequently take their show on the road and offer programs throughout the community and region. For example, AmeriCorps member Karyn Norwood took part in a panel discussion on bringing community commemorations to classrooms at the Ohio Local History Alliance regional meeting in Hinckley. Liz Schultz was a presenter at the National Underground Railroad Network to Freedom conference in Cincinnati and also presented "Oberlin and the Underground Railroad" for the Elder College at Bowling Green State University. Pat Murphy spoke at the American Association of Museums conference in Houston and also was the author of a chapter on "Human Resources Administration: Building an Effective Team" in the second volume of a new six-volume Small Museum Toolkit published by AltaMira Press in association with the American Association for State and Local History. She also continues to serve the museum field in her role as an Accreditation Commissioner for the American Association of Museums which meets three times a year to review museums that are seeking initial accreditation and reaccreditation.

The Oberlin Heritage Center is deeply grateful to OHC's long-time Financial Assistant/Librarian and former Board President Pat Holsworth who retired from her staff position in the fall following many years of dedicated service. She has had a huge impact in shaping the strong organization we know today. Many OHC members and friends attended a reception in her honor held at First Church in November. Pat Holsworth remains active with the organization as a library, genealogy and oral history volunteer and continues to serve on the Finance Committee.

The Heritage Center welcomed Bethany Hobbs as its new Business

State Representative Dan Ramos, offers warm congratulations to Jim White upon being named the Oberlin News-Tribune's Oberlinian of the Year. More than 200 of Jim's friends and colleagues attended a community-wide reception in March hosted by the Oberlin Heritage Center and the News-Tribune at First Church in Oberlin, U.C.C.

Students from Huron University College in London, Ontario experienced a Freedom's Friends History Walk to learn about how the Underground Railroad operated in Oberlin and how it related to historic and current African Canadian communities in Ontario. Museum Education and Tour Coordinator Liz Schultz (front, left) invited Honorary Trustee Thelma Quinn Smith (front, right) to share her own family history tracing free and enslaved family members from the south to Oberlin and on to Canada.

Manager in September. Bethany brings an array of talents and expertise from previous positions at The Ohio State University and elsewhere. She has quickly become an indispensable part of the Heritage Center team.

Beloved Past President James W. White was lauded and saluted as the Oberlin News-Tribune's Oberlinian of the Year at a reception at First Church in March. He also received Oberlin College's Distinguished Service Award as part of the College Commencement services in May. His passing at 87 years young on December 7, 2011 marked the end of a distinguished career of service both to his profession as Oberlin College's nationally known Financial Aid Director and to non-profit organizations throughout the community. The Heritage Center benefitted tremendously from his astute and inspiring leadership and service in many capacities.

The Heritage Center is fortunate to have a very dedicated and talented Board of Directors contributing their skills and resources in a great variety of ways. As part of building a stronger and greener organization, this year Board packets, policies and procedures, and Board reference materials that were formerly photocopied and provided in a thick orientation notebook have now been moved to a Board section of the website for ready electronic reference. This has helped save paper and reduce mailing costs. Board members especially enjoyed a fall tour to Stan Hywet Hall and Gardens led by Heritage Center member Julia Shaw, a Stan Hywet docent and member of the Seiberling Family who built that grand country home in Akron.

The Heritage Center ended the year with a bang by publishing its new history comic book, Oberlin: Origins and Onward!, which was a year in the making. It was written and illustrated by Bentley Boyd who worked together with project coordinators Pat Murphy, Liz Schultz, and Gail Wood, a trustee, docent, and retired Oberlin 3rd grade teacher. It is designed to appeal to elementary grade students to ensure that reading and exploring Oberlin and its history will be fun, but it also has great appeal for Oberlin fans and visitors of all ages. The creative and colorful comic book was produced in memory of a former Oberlin Heritage Center trustee, Nicholas Stevenson, and funded by his friends. Each Oberlin third grader will receive a free copy of the book annually in conjunction with their study of local history and their visit to the Little Red Schoolhouse. The comic book is also for sale at the Heritage Center, in its on-line museum store, and in local stores, with all proceeds helping the Heritage Center accomplish its mission: to preserve and share Oberlin's unique heritage and to make our community a better place to live, learn, work and visit.

As always, we welcome your questions, comments and suggestions, and we thank you for your generous support, past, present and future. It helps our energetic and creative staff, volunteers and interns preserve and share our community's rich history in so many ways.

Annual Meeting features Burt Logan, CEO of the Ohio Historical Society

The 2011 Annual Meeting held on April 6, 2011 featured the Ohio Historical Society's new CEO, Burt Logan. Treasurer's Report

As treasurer and chair of the Finance Committee, I am amazed at what our organization achieves within the confines of a very tight operating budget. The past year was particularly challenging as grant dollars have become harder to obtain and endowment funds have yielded less income since we work with a rolling 3-year average market value in determining our annual distribution to help cover operating expenses. Our focus remains on providing programs and services in accordance with our mission, while also addressing basic necessities such as insurance, utilities, routine maintenance, and staffing. We have reluctantly deferred some expensive, much-needed building maintenance matters, such as replacing the badly deteriorated, leaky Jewett House roof and repairing the decaying Jewett House barn. We will need to find solutions for these challenges in the not too distant future.

We remain optimistic and continue to move forward in accordance with our mission while making the most effective use we can of our resources. We are very grateful that income from annual fund contributions has been strong and we are gratified by this important show of community support. In 2011, we raised $38,135 in the annual campaign, exceeding our goal of $35,000. Each staff member and 88% of the Board of Trustees contributed to the campaign as part of 266 total annual fund donors. In addition, we are very pleased that we have a very solid membership base and that membership income for 2011 was $28,975, reflecting an increase of $3755 over the previous year. We are also very grateful to all who have contributed to our endowment funds, purchased an inscribed brick, shopped in our museum store, or otherwise helped to financially support the Heritage Center.

The Statement of Activities in the audited financial summary in this annual report reflects expenses and income for the Oberlin Heritage Center and for the 89 S. Professor Street Group Home property which it owns and which is operated by the Lorain County Developmental Disabilities Board. The Statement of Financial Position in the audited financial summary includes the Heritage Center's investments in rental properties which are managed by OHC Properties, Inc. (three residential rental properties on the perimeter of the Heritage Center grounds) and Vineway LLC (which manages the commercial building at 82 S. Main Street.) Please note also that the Functional Expenses summary shows a breakdown of the categories of our expenses, reflecting our emphasis and focus on program services.

Your continued support is vitally important and helps the Oberlin Heritage Center in so many ways. Please let me know if I can answer any questions you may have about the Heritage Center's financial picture or if you would like any additional information.

Liz Schultz guided a creative bunch of youngsters in the ever-popular “Architecture Camp” at the Oberlin Depot. The week included a walking tour of Oberlin architecture, designing your own mini-building, and a chance to talk with a real-life architect!

AUGUST 18

Karyn Norwood wove together both lively and poignant accounts of Oberlinians serving on the battle field and of their loved ones who kept the home fires burning in “The Civil War: Oberlin Perspectives on the Home Front and the War Front” presented at Kendal.

SEPTEMBER 14-15

More than 400 school-aged children took part in the Lorain County Metro Parks “Pioneer”

Craftsman Experience” at Mill Hollow in the Vermilion River Reservation, rotating among stations demonstrating different aspects of pioneer life. At the Heritage Center’s station, Liz Schultz got the children thinking about the courage it took to escape from slavery and the commitment needed to assist brave freedom-seekers on their journey to freedom.

SEPTEMBER 24

Oberlin Heritage Center offered free admission for guided tours at 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. as part of Smithsonian Magazine’s Museum Day. More than 1,000 museums participated around the country in the seventh year of this annual event when museums emulate the free-admission policy of the Smithsonian Institution’s Washington, DC-based properties.

SEPTEMBER 28

Local educator (and Oberlin Heritage Center Board member) Donna Marie Shurr presented a beautifully illustrated and engaging community program on “Learning from China” at Kendal at Oberlin, sharing highlights and observations from her summer study trip to China through the National Consortium for Teaching about Asia (NCTA), which was supported by The Freeman Foundation.

OCTOBER 8

Oberlin Heritage Center’s Summer Camp programs were honored at the annual meeting and conference of the Ohio Local History Alliance in Worthington, Ohio. The Heritage Center’s fun and educational offerings for kids and teens received the History Outreach Award in the public programming category.

OCTOBER 14

Oberlin Heritage Center teamed up with FAVA, Allen Memorial Art Museum, and Oberlin Public Library/America Reads Program to offer fun learning activities in venues around town during Community Arts and Culture

Day. These local organizations kept kids busy while schools were closed to allow teachers a day for continuing education training.

OCTOBER 26

Brothers Kenneth W. Jewett and Gregory L. Jewett collaborated on the program “Frank Jewett and the Jewetts: More than Aluminum” at Kendal at Oberlin, introducing audience members (which included a significant number of Jewetts!) to the far-reaching influence of the Jewett family in America.

OCTOBER 28

Oberlin Heritage Center hosted the “Building a Meaningful Collection Workshop” at the Oberlin Depot for representatives of local historical organizations. Led by Andy Verhoff of the Ohio Historical Society’s Local History Office and Prue Richards, Collections Assistant at the Oberlin Heritage Center, the session was part of a series offered by the Local History Office throughout the state this autumn in association with the American Association for State and Local History’s (AASLH) new Standards and Excellence Program for History Organizations.

NOVEMBER 16

Gary Kornblith, Oberlin College Professor of History, examined why the United States, unlike most other nations, ended slavery through a massive war rather than by peaceful means. “The Coming of Emancipation” was presented before an audience of 170 at Kendal at Oberlin.

NOVEMBER 19

After serving ten years on the Oberlin Heritage Center staff as Financial Assistant (and prior to that she served on the Board and was Board President from 1998-2001), Pat Holsworth was honored at a community-wide Retirement Reception held at First Church in Oberlin, U.C.C. Continued on page 23

- Carol Lasser (Board member from 1997-2003)
- Betty Mahjoub (Board member from 2005-2011)

This new fundraising effort is the second part of a campaign to build an $800,000 endowment to support the salary of a full-time Museum Education and Tour Coordinator. The first phase of the campaign was completed in 2007, allowing the Heritage Center to hire Elizabeth (“Liz”) Schultz for the position which has also been partially supported by grants and special projects. Mary Van Nortwick announced that 100% of the Heritage Center’s Board and Staff have already contributed to the campaign. She encouraged all in attendance to support it generously as an important way to help the Heritage Center reach new audiences through its outstanding heritage education activities.

The Board of Trustees announced the appointment of several new honorary trustees at the annual meeting and saluted them for their extraordinary service on the Board: (front, left): Jean Foggo Simon, Betty Mahjoub, and (back, left): Carol Lasser, Brad Hayes, and Jim White.

Honorary Trustee and Volunteer of the Year (2004) Dick Holsworth won't be found resting on his laurels at the Oberlin Heritage Center! He even offers service with a smile as he fixes a patch of uneven bricks along the OHC pathways during Oberlin Pride Day in May.

OHC's Board officers form the Executive Committee and work together with the Board of Trustees and the Executive Director to help assure a strong future for the organization (front, left): Cathe Radabaugh, Board Treasurer, and Gail Wood, Board Secretary; (back, left): Nick Jones, First Vice President, Walter Edling, Board President, and Robert Calhoun, Second Vice President.

Saluting Pat Holsworth!

Board President, Staff Member, and Volunteer Extraordinaire!

Pat H. became a member of the Oberlin Heritage Center in 1993 and quickly rolled up her sleeves and got involved! She joined the Board in 1997, was elected Board President in 1998, and upon completing her term in 2001, she signed on as a part-time Financial Assistant. All the while, Pat has been active in the Heritage Center's Resource Center as librarian, genealogist, researcher and oral history interviewer and transcriber. She and her husband, Dick, are Endowed Life members of the Oberlin Heritage Center and both have had a huge impact in shaping the strong organization we know today. Pat retired in the fall of 2011 after serving ten years as the Heritage Center's Financial Assistant. We are delighted she remains active as an Oberlin Heritage Center library, genealogy and oral history volunteer and Finance Committee member.

Pat Holsworth (center) greets OHC Honorary Trustees Dick Gilbert (left) and Jeanne McKibben (right) at a reception hosted by the Oberlin Heritage Center at First Church in Oberlin in November 2011. Many OHC members and community friends stopped by to thank and applaud Pat for 18 years of service to the organization as volunteer (1993 – present), Trustee (1997-2001), and staff member (2001-2011).

Pat Holsworth (center, OHC Board President from 1998-2001) is surrounded by fellow Board Presidents including James W. White (2005-2010), Cathe Radabaugh (2003-2005), Pat H., Roberta Garcia (2001-2003), and Marianne Cochran (1990-1998).

Pat and her husband (an OHC Honorary Trustee), Dick Holsworth, each were lauded in 2006 by the Ohio Association of Historical Societies and Museums (now the Ohio Local History Alliance) with the Individual Achievement Award in recognition of their outstanding service to local history.

Pat Holsworth, flanked by volunteer Audrey Kolb (left) and student intern Andrew Watiker (O C '10), welcomed visitors to the Heritage Center's booth at Juneteenth.

No, we're not keeping Pat behind bars so she won't leave the organization! Fortunately, she plans to continue volunteering as a master genealogist and librarian in the OHC Resource Center.

Pat Holsworth and OHC colleague Prue Richards (Collections Assistant) developed a popular "Be a Good Ancestor" workshop that was offered several times at the Oberlin Depot during Pat H.'s tenure on the Heritage Center staff.

Pat may even continue to assist with Pride Day grounds clean-up, as she was doing when this photo was snapped in 2010.

We welcomed back Oberlin College student interns Tim Krumreig '12 (a Geology major and Firelands High School graduate from Oberlin), and Erin Swenson-Klatt '13 (a History/Environmental Studies double major from Minneapolis, MN), who have been assisting in many arenas at the Heritage Center since they first arrived at the college. Both are well-versed as docents; Tim is also trained in Collections care, while Erin is a great help with program publicity.

Joining OHC as interns in 2011 were first-year Oberlin College students, César Palacio (Dallas, TX) and Monica Monsalve (Miami, FL), both Bonner Scholars, which means they have an especially strong commitment to community service as they pursue their college degrees. César plays several musical instruments and plans to double-major in clarinet performance and English, while Monica plans to major in Politics and History with an emphasis on Peace & Conflict Studies.
